The recruitment campaign for 2023 is launched !

For more than 25 years, the BIOTechno Network has been helping and supporting doctoral students and young researchers to pursue their professional careers in the private sector.

Each year, the teams of the BIOTechno Network organize various events to allow young graduates in the field of biotechnology to discover all the jobs they can claim after their diploma, through networking events, professional visits, webinars and meeting forums for young researchers/companies.

It is a huge opportunity to develop soft skills as management, communication, cooperation, adaptability and more !

BIOTechno teams are looking for their next collaborators for 2023 !
